Camper Behavior

- Be respectful of their fellow campers, counselors, environment, equipment, and to others.
- They are to be responsible for their own actions.
- Honesty is the best policy.
- Campers should care for their fellow campers.
- They are expected and encouraged to talk to any counselor if they need help.

Parents will be notified of unacceptable behavior. If behavior continues the camper will be dismissed from camp. Behaviors that endanger the safety and well-being of the child or other children or staff are considered major violations and are subject to immediate dismissal at the Camp Director's discretion. Refunds are not given to dismissed participants.
